

ICS OAI Tutoring+ Program FAQ

Who are the learning mentors?

The learning mentors are current undergraduate students majoring within the Donald Bren School of ICS.

What courses can the learning mentors help me with?

The learning mentors can help you with the following courses:

ICS 6B - Boolean Logic, 6D - Discrete Math

ICS 31 - Intro to Programming

ICS 32 - Programming w/ Software Libraries

ICS 33 - Intermediate Programming

ICS 45C - Programming in C/C++

ICS 46 - Data Structures

ICS 51 - Introductory Computer Organization

How do I make an appointment with the learning mentors?

Appointments are available at UCI Appointments.

Are appointments in-person or virtual?

The ICS OAI Tutoring+ Program offers both in-person and virtual appointments.

Are walk-ins available?

No, please schedule an appointment.

What is the ICS OAI Tutoring+ Program?

The ICS OAI Tutoring+ Program has learning mentors that can provide one-on-one mentorship and tutoring in introductory ICS courses.

What is ICS OAI?

The Stacey Nicholas Office of Outreach, Access and Inclusion's (OAI) mission is to recruit, retain, and graduate talented graduate and undergraduate students from historically excluded populations who are currently underrepresented in The Donald Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences (ICS).